Language journey

Benefits you get:

- Transfer from the airport to the accommodation and back
- 25 Lessons à 60 Min. per week in groups with max. 15 participants
- accommodated with half-board by host families or hotels
- Tools your need for the lessons
- certificate for participants
- assistance from staff of our partner school
- Program for free time incl. entrance free
- School bus on schooldays
- free tour-guide of the Country to each language
- free dictionary to each language

School:

Our language courses are organised by the language schools leading in each case in the country. They are informed exclusively of certified mother tongue teachers, they try to form diverse lessons for you. An experienced responsible person's team is responsible for a many-sided leisure programme.

Language course:

The language course encloses 25 intensive lessons with home language teachers. The lessons take place in each language school.

The groups consist of max. 15 people of mostly international allocation. Grammar, conversation, text work, hearing understanding exercises and discussion groups stand on the curriculum. Within the scope of the more intensive courses are offered special central topics of interest as for example culture, kitchen, country & people etc. With the business courses an inspection of a known enterprise stands also on the programme.

Accommodation:

For the accommodation, you have two possibilities to choose:

- Bed & Breakfast-Hotel: You live in a nice, simple equipped Bed & Breakfast Hotel in a central location. You can choose between single room and double room.
- Gastfamilie: You live in a double or single room with half-board by a guest family carefully well chosen by us in a central location.

Arrival:

The flight in each country occurs individually and is already included in the travel price. Of course you will receive at the airport of an employee of the school. This brings you then to the coach or taxi that drives you, finally, to the guest family, or to the hotel. Please, note that you receive the employees of the partner schools at the airport only from 10:00 to 17:00 o'clock. The return flight should not occur if possibly, before 12:00 o'clock.

Free time and excursion:

After the lesson, a varied free time program is announced. Next to the different sport possibilities many other interesting activities and evening events (inspection of places of interest, visit to the theatre, shopping, Welcome party, Lasertag, etc.) are offered by the respective linguistic school. On the weekend also exists the possibility to get to know the country closer within the scope of a whole day trip.

Great Britain

Welcome to Great Britain!

Brighton

Lies on the south coast of England and is the best-known seaside resort of Great Britain. On the beaches, there are numerous restaurants, bars and clubs, as well as show and play events of all kind where you can recover after the courses can slurp comfortably cocktails and can spend a pleasant evening. In August a special highlight takes place in Brighton, the carnival comes to the town, which draws thousands of visitors and makes her stay an unforgettable experience. The language course takes place in Brighton in Brighton Language College.

France

Bienvenue en France!

Nizza, Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur

Nice is a port in the southeast of France, 30 kilometres away from the border to Italy between Cannes and the principality Monaco. The town offers many museums for art, history or local traditions. The variety of the different museums strengthens her reputation as an art metropolis. The Blumenkorso known in whole Europe by festively decorated motive carriages and countless flower arrangements counts in February to a special highlight.

Spain

Bienvenido en España!

Alicante

Is a Spanish port in Costa Blanca. Who travels to Alicante, that should visit beside the wonderful beaches also the marvellous town and in addition the castle Castillo de Santa Barbara. Beside numerous places of interest, there are also many museums who should be visited. The Hogueras de San Juan which find between from the 21st to the 24th of June stat are the most important festivity in Alicante and should be missed by no means.

Italy

Benvenuti in Italia!

Rom

Rome, built on seven hills, is one of the nicest and most impressive metropolises of her World. You move the inspection of the forum Romanum and the Coliseum into the former one Empire of Caesar back. Rome is not only known for the empire of the fashion designers, how Armani, Gucci, Versace, but also for his "culinary delicacy" famously. Which heart does not hit for pizza, spaghetti, Lasagne, Tiramisu, mozzarella and a lot more?
Meet the spirited Italians and enchant yourselves by the southern atmosphere!
